

Minutes of Meeting

Saudi British Joint Business Council

The fourth monthly meeting with the British companies which took place on 27/09/2018 to reduce the obstacles faced by the companies and to follow up with the relevant government entities

Attendees

Ayedh Al-Otaibi (SAGIA)	Abdulkareem Alhafi (PWC)
Ibrahim S. AlSuwail (SAGIA)	Steve Graham (Head of Trade Department)
Khalid A. Al-Sheddi (SAGIA)	Loy D'Souza (Head of Practice Development)
Rayan Aldoheiman (SAGIA)	Jo Taylor (Head of Business Operations)
Sondos Albishan (SAGIA)	Chris Johnston (Operations Director)
Waleed A. AlQwaifely (Tayseer)	Hashim Alawadi (Tech Invest/SBJBC)
Fadi Komati (PWC/SBJBC)	Omar Al-Suhibani (Associate)
Pam Jackson (PWC ME Regional Deals Leader)	Sajid S Hafesjee (Senior Technical Consultant)
Mike Robertson (Risk Manager)	Rizwan Osman (Legal Director)
Faizal Bhana (Managing Legal Counsel)

Summary

Upon the request of the British companies, a representative from the Board of Grievances has come to SAGIA to present a brief introduction about the history of the board, the juridical system in the Kingdom, the scope of specialization, and the E-services provided by the board to the attendees from the British companies.

Then as agreed, SAGIA and Tayseer have coordinated with the representatives from the General Authority for Zakat and Income Tax to attend the fourth monthly meeting; in order to answer all questions and enquires raised by the British side.

First, by answering all questions and concerns presented in the previous meeting from PWC on the tax environment in KSA. Then, answering the question raised during the meeting. In order to overcome the difficulties faced by British companies in the Kingdom.

Next meetings

Upon the discussion with the SBJBC, it is suggested that the next meeting should be in mid-November, in conjunction with the Business Council meeting during this month. Date & time will be confirm once the deadline is approaching.

